HENDRICKS - HORNE

(7)

JAMES HORNE, son of EPHRAIM and ELIZABETH(WILLIAMSON) HORNE, married _____ HENDRICKS, the daughter of JOHN WILLIAM HENDRICKS.
Both JAMES and _____ died young, and their children were raised by the HORNE grandparents.

Their children were:

1. COLLINS LYLE HORNE, born about 1795-1800, Chesterfield

County, South Carolina, died intestate 1823, Wayne County, Mississippi. About 1817, Wayne County, he married EMMARYLLIS ELIZABETH LANG, the daughter of WILLIS and EMMA (____) LANG.

EMMARYLLIS LANG was born 4 December 1802, and died
20 May 1879. She married a second time, Wayne County, Mississippi, to DOUGALD CANNON SHAW, and both are buried in marked graves, Winchester, Mississippi.

Issue of COLLINS L. HORNE:

(1) JAMES ALBERT HORNE, born October 16, 1818, died unmarried near Perry, Texas.

(2) WILLIS LANG HORNE, born 21 February 1821, died Wayne County, August 1853 and is buried in Winchester. He married, 1847, his first cousin, ALBANY LANG. She was born 16
October 1822, Wayne County, died 10 June 1894, Marlin, Texas. She married, second, by 31 July 1858, DR. E. A. MILLER.

(3) SARAH EMMARYLLIS HORNE, born 16 February 1823, married in 1837 to SEABORN JONES BROWN.

Both are buried in unmarked graves in the

2. JOHN HENDRICKS HORNE, brother to COLLINS L. HORNE, married several times. I have his wives and children in a letter written long ago by Mrs. McInnis of Clarksdale, Mississippi, who is his descendant. Will keep searching for her letter and xerox it for you.

In a letter written from Wayne County to his grandparents, EPHRAIM and ELIZABETH HORNE he (JHH) mentions COUSIN UNITY HENDRICKS, who was contemplating removing to Mississippi, and that his brother COLLINS L. HORNE was dead.

Anson County, North Carolina, Deed Book W, page 147. 2 November 1820.

COLLINS L. HORNE of the State of Mississippi, Wain County, to HUGH MEADOWS of Anson County for $200, a tract of land in Anson County on THOMPSON'S creek.....granted to SAMUEL ROLLINS on 16 November 1790 adjoining THOMAS CREAL.....HILL.....RORIE.....RUSHING.

Witnesses: A. SINCLAIR
DAVID HENDRICK
MARY COPELAND.

COMMENTS: Note DAVID HENDRICK. This HENDRICK family lived next to EPHRAIM HORNE as did THOMAS CREAL. THOMAS CREAL'S will is in Anson County, N.C. and he disposes of a cow to ELIZABETH HORNE, "daughter of my wife" and "wife of EPHRAIM HORNE."

The above from VIRGINIA HORNE, Wadesboro, N.C. who worked long years on the HORNE FAMILY, and in whose family the EPHRAIM HORNE property remained. Margaret Searcy personally checked the COLLINS L. HORNE deed and various records in Anson County, N.C.

BENJAMIN MEADOWS, born 1815, Anson County, N.C. married ELIZABETH COLLINS, born County Kildare, Ireland.and I do not know where the source for this is. It is with items taken at Winchester cemetery.another item is PATTONS GOLD and I hope you know something of this.

Tomb of GEN. JAMES PATTON, born Anson County, North Carolina
September 10, 1754.....died 1831, age 76.....as I recall, GEN. PATTON wasn't buried in the Winchester cemetery and his may have been the grave stone that I crawled through blackberry bushes to read.

I suppose DR. WILLIAM PATTON who testified in the HENDRICKS suit was a brother or son of the GENERAL.

According to daughter of ELLEN (HOOKER) HARDY: COUSIN WILLIAM COLLINS lived with ELLEN during the Civil War so there would be "a man at home".
COUSIN WILLIAM had a daughter JOSEPHINE who lived in New Orleans....
COUSIN WILLIAM died at Beauvoir.

A WILLIAM COLLINS, age 10, is listed with RICHARD HOOKER in the 1850
Holmes County, Mississippi, census.

ELLEN (HOOKER) HARDY was sister to P. H. HOOKER who m. SARAH ELIZABETH BROWN.

RICHARD HOOKER was brother to AMELIA who married JACOB COLLINS, (the son of JOSHUA COLLINS) uncle to PATRICK HENRY HOOKER and ELLEN.

My grandmother, SARAH EMMARYLLIS (HOOKER) STOVALL/^{daughter of PATRICK H. HOOKER}(m. 2nd BOIES) that JIMMY COLLINS was a Missionary of the LDS Church.....to England, I think. And, that he was related through the RAY family and this I have been unable to check either pro or con. That some of the RAYS from Lawrence County, Mississippi, removed to Utah and were members of the LDS Church is proven.

Dear Jean:

Your letter of the 14th is most welcome. Don't know much about COLLINS other than that in the CHRISTOPHER COLLINS lawsuit and the Baptist Church Minutes published in Miss. Gen. Exchange.

The only other COLLINS I am familiar with:

~~COLLINS~~ ^{HOOKER} AMELIA ~~COLLINS~~ m. 1823, Lawrence County, to JACOB COLLINS, son of JOSHUA COLLINS. Bondsman was MARK NOBLE. Do you think that JOSHUA was the one in the Baptist Church Minutes?

MOSES COLLINS married a granddaughter of WILLIAM GOODSON ^{Goodson} who died in Hinds County in the 1830's. GOODSON's second wife was ELIZABETH (NOBLE) RAY and her daughter ANN RAY married AMELIA's brother.

Traced ~~neither~~ ^{neither} of these COLLINS lines any further.

I suppose that DAVID HENDRICKS mentioned in the Church Minutes and the law suit was the son of JOHN WILLIAM HENDRICKS. Have no proof. On 20 Feb 1830 JACOB COLLINS & OBADIAH HAND owe DAVID HENDRICKS, SR.....one of the legatees of the estate of LUCY COLLINS, deceased.

From your Miss. Terr. publication, in Washington County:

1813 - OBADIAH HAND, 2 town lots, St. Stephens, 1 white poll, 1 slave 1814 and 1815 - ditto
1816 - the two town lots, plus 120 acres

The HENDRICKS, as you know, came from Anson County, N.C. as it appears most of Wayne County did. JWH appears in Chesterfield County, S.C. before in Anson. Presumably, they are originally from York County, Pennsylvania.

In a letter in the 1820's to his HORNE grandparents, JOHN HENDRICKS HORNE mentioned the death of his brother COLLINS (from whom I descend)...a COUSIN UNITY HENDRICKS who, it would appear, contemplated removing to Mississippi.

From this outline, you can tell the avenue I have been tracing. Your suggestions will be MOST WELCOME as well as additions or corrections. Should you wish further details on any of this, will be glad to supply.

Eagerly await the Wayne County Tax lists.....Do give me a deadline on Wayne County marriages. I get busy with various pursuits and sometimes appear neglectful and really don't mean to be.....Please excuse bad typing.

My dear Ben & Jean Strickland:

Am enclosing check for $9.00 to cover RECORDS OF GREENE COUNTY, MS VOL. L.

Should Wayne County ~~MT~~ & State Tax Rolls, 1810-20 be completed, please send it also, with bill.....or advise cost and I will remit prior your mailing.

The Records of Wayne County, Vol. 1, and Tax Rolls of Washington County, MT were like a letter from home! They are wonderful and I thank you for for preparing. Do believe that you correctly read LANG and LONG in the Wayne County records.

You mentioned the Christopher Collins suit vs Ann Hendricks et al. That file was received from Mississippi Archives a few weeks ago and is splendid. Collins L. Horne is my ancestor....the John H. Horne mentioned is his brother. They were grandchildren of John William Hendricks whose will was being contested by Christopher. (Thank goodness, he did) They were from Anson County, North Carolina.....as it appears most of early Wayne County was.

Am working on LANG ancestry. WILLIS LANG, my ancestor, and his brother WM. A. LANG. A lot of work was done on this around the turn of the century by the Texas Langs. The LANGS, BOYKINS, McRAES are bound to be related but it must have been in South Carolina. A good many years ago, Mr. Leonardo Andrea of Columbia South Carolina worked on the LANG family for me but did not resolve it. Now that I have accumulated more data, have contacted Harold DeLorne in Columbia who possibly will help.

Recently checked McQueen genealogy and found the McQueen-Strickland marriage.... Checked it when I noted a McQueen in your records.

The N. B. HOOKER and wife vs NATHAN HOOKER case in Miss. Court Records from filed of High Court of Errors & Appeals is mine too. NATHAN HOOKER, whose widow Ann won on appeal, is buried NW of Clinton, Hinds County, Miss.....and eventually I come along. My grandfather, GILBERT STOVALL who m. NATHAN's granddaughter, is buried in the Hooker lot.

Let me know just what you want on the Wayne County marriages and I'll get up what I have for you. When my children were babies, I wrote to everyone I could locate for family material and have accumulated quite a bit.

Again, want to say I'm so thankful you are making this splendid contribution to Wayne County history and genealogy.

Sincerely,

Margaret Searcy

Horne or Horn Family

We have been able to trace our Horne or Horn ancestors back to Shirod Horne, born somewhere in North Carolina about 1760 and he was a veteran of the American Revolution. Shirod Horne's wife was Patsy Thurmand of South Carolina.

One of Shirod's sons was Needham Horne. He was born October 29, 1782 in North Carolina, married and raised a family in Eastern Georgia, Hancock County. He and his family imigrated to Mississippi, before the Civil War, in the 1830s. Needham's wife was a Kennedy and of Cherokee extraction. There are those among our connection and ancestors with Indian characteristics that have followed down through the family. Needham's son, John Kennedy Horne, and two of his sons were Veterans of the Confederacy in the Civil War. The two sons of John Kennedy Horne to serve in the Civil War were:

1. John Kennedy Horne, Jr.
2. James Wesley Horne

EVOLUTION OF A SPANISH LANDGRANT 1799

Sold to Mr. J. L. Dantzler in four separate parcels as part of Simon Cumbest private claim. Section 10, township 7 S., Range 6 W. Which comprises part of which would be regular Section 23, Township 7 S., Range 6 W., and a small portion of regular Section 27 of this same township.

There appears a conveyance made by Simon Cumbest to (Wells)
Henry ~~XXXXX~~, July 13, 1819, in which he conveyed a tract of land on the waters of Cumbest Lake, commonly known as "Gaines Improvements". There is no further description to identify this property. In subsequent deeds Cumbest Lake, Beardslee Lake, and Griffin Lake, are all identified as same body of water.

(Wells)
On March 1, 1822, Henry ~~XXXXXX~~ conveyed "Gains Improvements" to Ellis Fairbanks.

August 1830, Fairbanks conveyed same to Joseph H. Beardslee. "Gaines Improvement" probably was East of the Dantzler Homestead but not sure. The first portion of the lands was known as Scott McKay Place. The tract described in the deed as: Beginning at stake on the W. line of Mrs. S. E. Dantzler's lands, on the N. side of the road leading from the Methodist Church toward the residence of Wm. Griffin, running thence along road due W. 157 ft., thence due N. 419 ft., thence due S. 419 ft. along the line of S. E. Dantzler to the place of beginning. This description is used in a deed executed by Wm. Griffin to Scott McKay March 28, 1882.

Scott McKay, on March 29, 1882, conveyed the above land to L. N. Dantzler.

The starting point of this description cannot be identified save by public recognition as the deed to Sara E. Dantzler as of record dated Jan. 22, 1876. This conveys 80 acres more or less on what was formerly called the Cumbest Lake, now called the Beardslee or Griffin Lake near the mouth of Dog River. Being lot No. 2 in a survey ordered by the Probate Court of the estate of Simon Cumbest, deceased and in a division among the heirs of same allowed to Simon Cumbest and bounded on the East by Beardslee, on the South by lands of the estate of Antoine Eley, now owned by Dr. H. S. Howze, West by lands formerly owned by Sara Fairbanks, now owned by Wm. Griffin and Co., and North by Cumbest or Beardslee or Griffin Lake. In all probability this was the Sara Dantzler line referred to in the deeds to McKay, but we find no record of Sara Fairbanks ever having owned lands on the West as was pointed out, at one time ^(Eley) ~~Ellis~~ Fairbanks owned the "Gaines Improvements", but that is as far as the records show.

Mr. L. N. Dantzler, Aug. 23, 1894, executed a deed to Mr. J. L. Dantzler conveying the property under same description as contained in his deed from Scott McKay, which included another tract described as beginning at the intersection of the lands of S. E. Dantzler and John Graham 157 ft. thence N. to bank of Beardslee Lake, thence E. along bank of said lake to the S. E. Dantzler, S. along said line of S. E. Dantzler to place of beginning. By this we believe that it was intended to convey the property lying N. of Scott McKay Place and bordering on the Lake. This deed was signed by Mr. Dantzler in the following manner: "L. N. Dantzler, President" and was acknowledged by him as Pres. of L. N. Dantzler Lumber Co., tho in the body of the deed it purports to be his individual act and not of the Lumber Co. A corrective deed was executed however, by his heirs which will be referred to later.

The lots W. of McKay Place- as follows. Feb. 28, 1885 E. F. Griffin conveyed to Charles Hanson the following lot. Beginning at the S. W. corner of a lot on the Griffin or Foundry Road, thence along said road 2.41 chains, N. 86 ft. 45 Ft. W. thence 4.15 chains N., thence 2.41 chains S. 86 degrees 45 ft. E. thence S. 4.15 chains to the place of beginning. Nothing definite as a point of beginning is indicated in this deed and there were probably many lots on Griffin or Foundry Road.

After Hanson's death his heirs-at-law, were his widow, Mathilda Hanson, nee Pippkins, and a son Charles F. Hanson. She married A. W. Cambley and died leaving her heirs-at-law, 2 sons, John M. Pippkins, Charles F. Hanson and her husband. A daughter born to Mr. & Mrs. Cambley died in infancy.

A. W. Cambley executed a deed to John D. Graham, which was not recorded, conveying the following lot: The same land that was sold to Charles Hanson by E. F. Griffin, Feb. 28, 1885, made in 1900.

Aug. 22, 1907 Mr Cambley executed another deed to John

D. Graham, using practically the same description as above.

John D. Graham, Oct. 1, 1904 conveyed this property to J. L. Dantzler, using as a point of interest the S. W. corner of J. L. Dantzler homestead, known as the Scott McKay Place and the identical metes and bounds as in the other deeds.

John M. Pippkins conveyed his undivided 1/6 interest in this lot to Mr. J. L. Dantzler, and Charles F. Hanson conveyed all of his interest in the lot to Mr. Dantzler also.

Mr. Cambley verified that his daughter lived after her mother died.

E. F. Griffin conveyed to John F. Graham, Feb. 11, 1885 the following: Beginning at the N. W. corner of the Charles Hanson lot fronting on Griffin and Foundry Road, thence S. 86 degrees 45 Ft. E. 2.41 chains, N. 1 chain, N. 86 degrees 45 Ft. 4.82 chains, S. 3.22 chains to place of beginning.

Sept. 12, 1903 Wm. J., John D., and Thomas E. Graham executed a deed conveying this lot to John Edward Erickson, Aug. 31, 1903, Mary Ann Graham conveyed this lot to Edward Erickson, June 24, 1904 John Erickson and Italy Erickson, his wife conveyed this lot to Mr. Dantzler.

Sept. 20, 1907 heirs of Mr. L. N. Dantzler, deceased, executed a deed to Mr. J. L. Dantzler as follows: Begin at iron stake on N. side of Foundry Road, being S. 61 degrees W. 21 ft. 9 inches from S. W. corner of yard enclosing the residence of J. L. Dantzler, and running from said stake along N. edge of Foundry Road S. 86 degrees E. 225 ft., N. to Griffin or Beardslee Lake thence W. along S. margin of said lake to a point due N. of the starting point, thence S. to place of the beginning. Said tract being the present residence of J. L. Dantzler and known as the Scott McKay place.

Mr. J. L. Dantzler, deceased left the above to his son Mayers.

The deeds to Mr. J. L. Dantzler included a width as follows: The Scott McKay Place 157 ft., Hanson lot 2.41 chains, which gives a total frontage of 316 ft. and not 384 fr. as indicated on the plat. (courtesy of Walter Barber)

Mr. Barber's house consists of seven rooms. It is over one hundred years old. The furniture was commissioned. A nationally known artist cabinet maker in Nashville, Tennessee designed, carved, and fashioned the furniture in the dining room and in the three bedrooms.

Among the treasures in the living room are a four legged oblong piano of ^{rose}ebony wood, and a melodeon that matches it, in carving, wood, and make. These were manufactured in Pennsylvania in 1850. Several family ^{romances} budded and flourished around the keyboards of both of these early Victorian match-making devices.

Mr. Barber is a member of an old North Carolina, and Mississippi family. He was associated with the L. & M. Dantzler Lumber Company. His wife, Hazel Graham traces her lineage from the noble house of Graham of England. She is a native of Pennsylvania.

SUBJECT: HORNE

I am looking for information on Olivia Horn who married Robert Hardy in 1808 in Edgecombe County, NC. Olivia had a sister named Patsy and they were both children of Nathaniel Horn and Roena (Roda) Horn. Yes a horn married a Horn.

Olivia was buried in Choctaw Co. AL where she had spent her last years with her daughter Francis Tyler.

Olivia had other children - James Blunt Hardy, Frances Tyler Hardy, Lizzie Hardy Richardson, Aquilla Hardy and I believe Bob or Robert Hardy.

Any help appreciated.

Dear Mrs. Strickland,

It was such a delight to get to talk with you today since you are the person who has been such a help to me already through your work. I'm sure you would much rather have been back to work already so I hope this finds you feeling better.

As we discussed, my great great grandmother, Elizabeth Gordon Horne born 11 April 1823 in Mississippi appears on the 1850 Census of Hinds County, MS, as the wife of Xenaphon L. Bracey aged 28 with a daughter Elcy aged 11. X.L. appears on the 1840 Clarke County Census as between 20 - 30, with a wife between 20 - 30 and one female child less than five years of age. I believe these to be the same family as I can trace X.L. through tax records in Hinds Co. in 1839 but gone in 1840 and back again in 1850. I can find no record of their marriage but feel those records must have been destroyed when the Wayne county court house burned. Needless to say I am delighted that you have collected marriage records in your book Who Married Whom in Wayne County and have enclosed my check for $26.50.

Your book Who Lived Where in Wayne County shows that X.L. Bracey bought property next to John Hendricks Horne in Clarke County and also states that the children of John H. and Collins L. Horne, his brother, are known. I feel there is enough circumstantial evidence to pursue either of them as Elizabeth's father so am anxious to see whom you have listed as their children. I have checked both Vol. 1 and 2 of your books Miscellaneous Records of Southeast Mississippi which our library has but could find no such listing. Do you have another volume to suggest?

I am looking forward to working with you on this project. Thank you again for all of the work it has taken to make this information available to the rest of us. If there is anything that I can do for you here in the Tennessee State Archives, please let me know.

Sincerely,

There was an Obediah Hand shown in the 1800 US Census of SC, in Liberty County (which became the Marion District in 1801, adjoining the Georgetown District to the northeast). This is most likely our Obadiah Hand #1. If so, Obadiah Hand left SC for AL between 1800 and 1812.

A SHIP SENTENCED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT

For Twenty-One Years "Victoria" Has Cruised Around in Lonely Lake Nicaragua.

The Recruiting News of the United States Army carries an interesting story of a ship that was imprisoned in Lake Nicaragua by an earthquake twenty-one years ago, and has been unable to get out in the open sea since that time. The story in part follows:

"Searching and prying, her questing nose pushing into countless coves and outlets on Lake Nicaragua, a lonely ship has been fruitlessly attempting a return to the open sea for the past twenty-one years. Cruising about, ever anxious for release, the inquisitive vessel has explored every inch of shoreline along the inland lake during the two decades, yet to no avail.

"'Victoria' is the name of this questing ship. She was built at Wilmington, Delaware, in 1882, for coastal trade along the smiling blue waters of the Caribbean Sea. A steel vessel with twin screws, burning wood in her gates, the 'Victoria' is 130 feet in length and 26 feet in beam. She has been a prisoner on Lake Nicaragua since the spring of 1912. At that time, while cruising about the lake following one of her semi-monthly trips up the San Juan River, she was almost capsized by rough waters during a violent earthquake. An article by C. Stewart Lee in the Marine Journal tells of the aftermath of the quake:

"The 'Victoria' steamed proudly away to the river entrance to make her way back into the Caribbean—and Lo! It had disappeared. From a deep, wide, smoothly flowing river, the stream had become a shallow torrent plunging over huge boulders. The earthquake coming suddenly in the night had reared an impassable barrier and the gallant 'Victoria,' which had outlived both a hurricane and an earthquake, was doomed to spend the rest of her life marooned and helpless in Lake Nicaragua."

"But is the 'Victoria' really doomed? Since United States Army engineers aboard her cruised about the lake, it seems possible that the indefinite sentence to solitary confinement may be commuted in the near future. For the engineers aboard were there to survey the proposed route of the Nicaraguan evenings. It's time to get the family automobile ready for another season.

Let us pause for a moment to consider the new season. Will it be like the last? Will it cost the lives of 29,500 more Americans? Will it bring serious and painful injury to nearly a million more? That's the record of the 1932 automobile season. It should never be repeated.

It is true that there were fewer accidents and fatalities last year than there were in 1931, but much of the reduction was accounted for by decreased use of automobiles. On the other hand, safety workers and educators in accident prevention can view the results with a certain personal pride. If their teachings are beginning to gain results, or if the tragic record of the past is beginning to influence the man behind the steering wheel, we may look with greater hope to 1933.

"Get out the family car by all means," says James A. Beha, General Manager, National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters. "Make sure it's in perfect condition. Have it inspected as to brakes, lights, steering mechanism, tires, rear vision mirrors and wind-shield wipers—all the small equipment means so much to safety. Then resolve to drive safely, obey traffic laws and think of the other fellow."

If you do this, you'll have a happy year, unmarred by tragedy. Too, in these days of strictly regulated family budgets, it is worth remembering that high automobile insurance rates are the inevitable result of a high accident record—and that only safe driving can bring them down.

VITAL STATISTICS OF JACKSON COUNTY FOR SEPTEMBER

BIG TOP COMING TO PASCAGOULA

Arrangements Are Completed for Coming of a Big Three Ring Circus.

Russell Bros. Three Ring Circus with its menagerie, is the circus and the date for this city is Saturday
Nov. 3rd, at the Municipal baseball park.

Depressions may come and go and so may the "New Deals," but every healthy human being always welcomes the coming of a first class, clean circus, for it is beyond any doubt the greatest bargain counter of amusement in the country. Human nature crave relaxation and amusement, people of this nation seem to recognize in the circus an opportunity to satisfy such a desire.

Russell Bros. is known as a "Sunday School Circus"—that is its management does not tolerate any great immoral acts and strives to please the public with an unusual thrilling performance by arenic artists of international reputation. It lists a great galaxy of stars, most of whom have never been seen here before. According to press criticisms and letters which we have seen, the Russell Bros.
Circus will surprise this community by its magnitude and merit. It uses three rings and the hippodrome track, and presents more at one time than any pair of eyes can see. The management guarantees a thrill a minute, in fact in some minutes we may expect two thrills.

The advance agents completed all local contracts here this week and the billers will post the brilliant announcement and date in all colors of the rainbow in a few days. Put this date in your date book and let us make our city seem like old times on "Circus day" and bury the "old man Depression" at least for one day.

R. L. Head on October 4, 1905, and as a result of that union has one son and one daughter, Adam Weller Head of Laurel; and Bettie Lee Head, now teaching at Lucedale. Deceased is also survived by two brothers, Lienhard Blumer of New Orleans and John F. P. Blumer of Tampa, Florida; also one grandson, Robert Weller Head, and other relatives.

Thus Moss Point loses a most useful and lovable woman, we may say also, an outstanding citizen. When the news was received that she was stricken with paralysis last Friday morning while eating her breakfast and that her life was despaired of, many were the hearts that melted with sympathy for her devoted husband and children, and many were the prayers for her recovery that went up from the lips and hearts of those who know her for what she was, "the noblest work of God," a pure, beautiful, noble Christian woman, bearing the love and esteem of hundreds of citizens.

Perhaps no woman who has ever lived in Moss Point has occupied a higher of more useful place in the church, civic and social activities of the city, than has Mrs. Head since her maturity. She has been a leader in every activity in which women took part, and in such a quiet, sweetly unobtrusive way as to merit and receive the love of those who were associated with her. Here are some of the activities of this noble woman: Organist of the Presbyterian church and Sunday School, teacher in the Sunday School, secretary of the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid, secretary Presbyterian Auxiliary, past president of the Moss Point civic league, and past president of Parent Teacher Association.

And with all of Mrs. Head's social and other activities, she found time to be a kind and loving helpmate for the man of her choice, a loving mother, and a home maker par excellence. It is hard to have to give up such a woman.

Hundreds of friends and acquaintances will join this paper in expressions of condolence for the bereaved ones, but they may be comforted by the thought that Mrs. Alberta Blumer Head leaves behind her a monument more lasting than marble or brass, the record of a life well spent and the assurance of an eternal home in "the islands of the blessed, the land of the hereafter."

day night. The preaching of Dr. Mayfield was enjoyed by large congregations that heard him each evening during the week, and proved greatly helpful. The church was revived and 21 new members were added.

No preaching service Sunday morning. Sunday school as usual. The pastor will preach at the fifth Sunday Masonic Service in the Escatawpa Baptist church.

Methodist

The Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. O. J. DeLamotte at three thirty Monday with Mrs. DeLamotte in charge of the program.

Presbyterian

The members of the Moss Point and Pascagoula churches will join together Sunday for the fifth Sunday service which will be held in Pascagoula with Rev. B. A. Meeks in charge of the service. All members of the two churches are urged to attend this service. There will not be any service in the church Sunday evening as fifth Sunday Masonic service will be held in Escatawpa with Rev. J. F. Brock delivering the sermon.

Circle No. 1 will meet with Miss Lottie Hyatt at the home of Mrs. George Bowen on Tuesday afternoon at three thirty.

Circle No. 2 will meet with Mrs. H. C. Beardslee at her home on Tuesday afternoon at three thirty.

Circle No. 3 will meet gwith Miss Hazle Herring on Monday afternoon at three forty-five.

All members are urged to attend the meetings of these circles.

CARD OF THANKS.

It is with a heart full of gratitude and appreciation that I take this method of extending thanks to those who so kindly assisted me during the recent illness and death of my dear husband, James Buchanan Horn, whose death occurred on September 20th. So kind and considerate were the many friends and neighbors that the sting of grief was softened, and I can say only, thank you, dear friends, and God bless you. Especially do I wish to thank the doctors who so faithfully attended my husband during his illness, the ministers who offered words of consolation and officiated at the funeral, and those who sent beautiful flowers to the grave.

Respectfully,

MRS. JAS. B. HORN.

The President has already accepted and made arrangements to make the trip from St. Louis to New Orleans by the river route.

CABIN JOHN BRIDGE.

The DEMOCRAT-STAR is in receipt of a picture of the celebrated Cabin John Bridge in Maryland, with the compliments of Mr. J. B. Horne, the stone cutter of Moss Point, Miss., who restored the name of Jefferson Davis to its place on the bridge in pursuance of one of the last orders of ex-President Roosevelt. The photograph shows Mr. Horne at work in cutting the name and gives a fair view of the tools used by him in his labor of love.

Mr. Horne resided at Moss Point for a number of years and is known to many of our people. He left here in July, 1908, and went to South Carolina and from there to Washington, where he is now located. The photo is highly prized by us and occupies a place of honor in our sanctum.

RHODES SCHOLARSHIP.

Chancellor A. A. Kincannon, of the University of Mississippi, has received notice from the secretary of the Cecil Rhodes scholarship fund that the State of Mississippi will be entitled to one scholarship at Oxford, Eng., this year, and giving instructions for the competitive examination. The examination will be held at the university on October 19 and 20, and all young Mississippians who desire to try for the scholarship are invited to communicate with him. A number of broad enough and deep enough labor for the common good of our common country," said the Governor. "We have in the States west of Mississippi the undoubted balance of power, no matter under what the national administration at Washington exists. In the years that passed our population and our material wealth have not enjoyed the representation to which they are entitled, and, furthermore, our leaders have been content to follow in no measure the leadership of men who represent relatively small constituencies and smaller commonwealths."

The speaker declared that the West, among other things, calls for emancipation from the domination of the trust and political machine. He denounced what he called years of national folly in the enactment of navigation laws and protective tariffs, and declared that "great army of Western yeomen" demand no fostering hand of government, and ask only for that freedom to which they are entitled by right under the guarantee of our constitution and our flag."

In Vardaman's Interest.

The friends of United States Senator Percy may expect every forensic champion of his cause to be met by one from Ex-Governor Vardaman's camp, just as Hon. B. P. Harrison, of Gulfport, did the proffer of State Senator Engle, of Natchez. Below is given Mr. Harrison's letter proffering his services:

"Gulfport, Miss., April 23, 1910.

"Hon. Jas. K. Vardaman, Jackson, Miss.

Dear Sir—Until we hear definitely from the State Executive Committee it will not be known when the special Senatorial primary, will be called, if at all; however, I notice in the public press that Senator Engle, of Natchez, has proffered his services in the campaign in behalf of Senator Percy, and I desire to make the same offer on your behalf. And to this end, and that the people may hear the issues discussed, I authorize the committee in charge of your interests to make such appointments to meet Mr. Engle in joint debate as may be mutually agreed upon.

Rev. B. L. Mitchell, pastor of the Poplarville Baptist church, and formerly pastor of the Baptist church here, occupied the pulpit Sunday morning and evening for Rev. C. M. Morris, who is at Poplarville conducting a series of meetings in the Baptist church there.

Mrs. J. A. Vanderwall and daughter, Miss Lolla, left on Monday for Mobile, where they will visit friends during the reunion. On their return they will be accompanied by Miss Suzette Keithley, of Crystal Springs, who will be with Miss Vanderwall for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Horne attended the reunion in Mobile this week. It will be remembered that Mr. Horne is the one who, by order of President Roosevelt, recut the name of Jefferson Davis on the Washington aqueduct, which is known as Cabin John Bridge, and which had been erased during the Civil War.

J. B. Horne

Stone cutter from Moss Point, Mississippi

J. B. Horne restoring Jefferson's name on Cabin John Bridge, Washington, D. C., May 14, 1909.

AFFIDAVIT OF JAMES BUCHANAN HORNE, STONECUTTER

The Washington Aqueduct, know as Cabin John Bridge, forms part of the system which supplies the city of Washington, D. C. with water. It is 420 feet in length, its span is 250 feet (sic) - one of the largest stone arches in the world. It was begun building in 1853, while Jefferson Davis, of the State of Mississippi, was Secretary of War. During the War between the States the name of Jefferson Davis was erased through order of Caleb B. Smith, Secretary of the Interior, by John Babinger, a stone-cutter workman. In 1909, President Roosevelt ordered the name to be restored. J. B. Horne, a stonecutter from Moss Point, Miss. subcontracted the work from the original contractor for the sum of $127.75. He began the work of restoration Tuesday, April 13th. The completion of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis was effected Friday, May 14, 1909. The dressing of the work and final completion was ended May 19, 1909...The tools with which this work was done consisted of 24 chisels and one hammer bought new for that work, and have never been used on any other work. These aforesaid tools are hereby sold to Mrs. Katie Walker Behan, of New Orleans, Louisiana, this the 14th day of July, 1909, for the sum of fifty dollars and are herewith turned over to her.

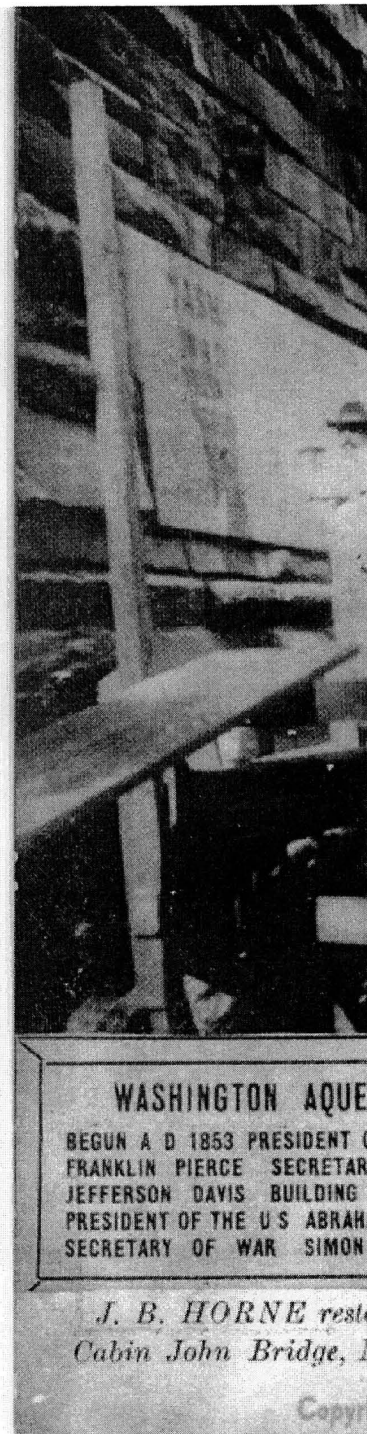

The tenacious Mrs. Behan had the tools used in the restoration placed in the Jefferson Davis repository at Memorial Hall in New Orleans.

THE MISS

FACES OF THE COAST

Christy Pritchett/The Mississippi Press

Pat Horn

Pat Horn has always run her own businesses. From dress shops to construction companies, she now runs Seafood at Market Square in Gautier with her daughter-in-law Donna Horn. The store features fresh Coastal seafood as well as specialty items such as sushi grade tuna and lobster tail. Horn says she also offers tips on how to cook some of the fish selections that her customers are less familiar with. Horns says she learns something everyday from customers, vendors or reading. "You have to have a passion for what you do, whatever it is," Horn said. She enjoys talking with her customers, who are both local and out-of-towners. She enjoys spending time with her family when she is not at work, as well as gardening, and is an avid reader. Horn has been a resident of Gautier for 15 years.

Horn-Walker

In a late summer ceremony marked with tradition, Miss Cheryl Ann Horn became the bride of Mr. Philip Bourdeaux Walker on September 29th, 1990 at Mount Pleasant United Methodist church at 6 o'clock in the evening. The Reverend Robert Kates officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Horn, Sr.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Margaret Walker, and the late Mr. Milton M. Walker, Sr.

The wedding took place on the 70th Wedding Anniversary of the bridegroom's grandparents, and on the bridegroom's birthday, at the altar where his parents were married in 1945.

The sanctuary of the church was lighted by tall white tapers in hurricane globes, and massed palms and ferns framed the altar. Music was provided by Mrs. W.T. Avara, Jr., aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Eric Wiggins Enger, cousin of the bridegroom.

Maid of Honor was Miss Tara Godfrey, Moss Point, MS, bridesmaids were Mrs. Laurin F. Avara, Moss Point, MS, Mrs. W.T. Avara, III, Moss Point, MS and Mrs. Gary Branham, Pascagoula, MS.

Best man was Mr. W.T. Avara, Jr., Pascagoula, MS. Groomsmen were Mr. Laurin F. Avara, Moss Point, MS, Dr. W.T. Avara, III, Moss Point, MS and Mr. Jimmy Horn, Jr., Pascagoula, MS.

The attendants wore identical tea length gowns of plum iridescent taffeta, fashioned along the princess lines, with very full skirts and high puffed sleeves. They carried bouquets of mini carnations, baby's breath and tied with ribbons.

Attendant children were Miss Melissa Hearn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hearn of Pascagoula, MS and Laurin F. Avara, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurin F. Avara, Sr., of Moss Point, MS.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white bridal satin, the bodice was heavily embroidered with pearls and iridescent beads, ending in a point at the waist. The full skirt was appliqued with medallions of lace re-embroidered with pearls and beads, in a panel down the front, and around the hem. The back of the skirt was accented by a bow of satin which tapered to the hem. The gown ended in a chapel length train. The bride carried a bouquet of orchids, white roses, heather and pearl sprays.

In keeping with the old fashioned wedding, the bridal couple arrived at a reception held at The Old Place, the ancestral home of the bridegroom's family, in a horse drawn carriage.

The couple received their guests before an archway festooned with tulle and evergreens in the dining room of the home. The bridal table was laid with a cloth of battenburg lace, and held a 3-tiered wedding cake surrounded with flowers and flanked by silver candelabras.

Boston ferns tied with ribbons were hung from the trees and from the porches surrounding the home. Bouquets of lilies, roses and baby's breath adorned the buffet tables. Lighted torches provided a setting for guests to dine and hear the music of the Avara Brothers Band.

After a wedding trip to North Carolina, the couple will be at home in Pascagoula.
